Secured party shall not be liable for failure to collect any account or instruments, or for any act or omission on the part of the secured party, its officers, agents or employees, except willful misconduct. The foregoing rights and powers of secured party will be in addition to, and not a limitation upon, any rights and powers of secured party given by law, elsewhere in this agreement, or otherwise. If debtor fails to maintain any required insurance, to the extent permitted by applicable law secured party may (but is not obligated to) purchase single interest insurance coverage for the collateral which insurance may at secured party's option (i) protect only secured party and not provide any remuneration or protection for debtor directly and (ii) provide coverage only after the obligation has been declared due as herein provided. The premiums for any such insurance purchased by secured party shall be a part of the obligation and shall bear interest as provided in B.1.d. hereof.
2. Convertible Securities. Secured party, may present for conversion any instrument or investment security in collateral which is convertible into any other instrument or investment security or a combination thereof with cash. But secured party shall not have any duty to present for conversion any instrument in collateral unless it shall have received from debtor detailed written instructions to that effect at a time reasonably far in advance of the final conversion date to make such conversion possible.

G. Default

1. Events of Default. The following are events of default hereunder:
 - a. default in the timely payment of any part of the obligation or in performance or observance of the terms and conditions herein or in any other agreement between debtor and secured party;
 - b. any warranty, representation or statement made or furnished to secured party herein, heretofore, or hereafter proves to have been false in any material respect when made or furnished;
 - c. acceleration of the maturity of debt of debtor to any other person;
 - d. substantial change in any fact warranted or represented in this agreement or in any other agreement between debtor and secured party or in any statement, schedule or other writing furnished in connection therewith;
 - e. sale, loss, theft, destruction, encumbrance or transfer of any collateral in violation hereof, or substantial damage to any collateral;

 - h. levy on, seizure or attachment of any property of debtor;
 - i. a judgment against debtor becomes final; or
 - j. any liability or agreement of third parties to debtor or on the collateral shall not be paid or performed in accordance with the terms thereof.

2. Remedies of Secured Party Upon Default. When an event of default occurs, and at any time thereafter, secured party without notice or demand may declare the obligation in whole or part immediately due and may enforce payment of the same and exercise any rights under the UCC, right and remedies of secured party under this agreement, or otherwise. Secured party may require debtor to assemble the collateral and make it available to secured party at a place which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Unless the collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, secured party will give debtor reasonable notice of the time and place of any public sale thereof or of the time after which any private sale or other intended disposition thereof is to be made. Expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling, leasing or the like shall include secured party's reasonable attorney's fees and legal expenses. Secured party shall be entitled to immediate possession of all books and records evidencing any accounts or general intangibles or pertaining to chattel paper covered by this agreement and shall have the authority to enter upon any premises upon which any of the same, or any collateral, may be situated and remove the same therefrom without liability. Secured party may surrender any insurance policies in collateral and receive the unearned premium thereon. Debtor shall be entitled to any surplus and shall be liable to secured party for any deficiency. The proceeds of any disposition after default available to satisfy the obligation shall be applied to the obligation in such order and in such manner as secured party in its discretion shall decide. If, in the opinion of secured party, there is any question that a public sale or distribution of any collateral will violate any state or federal securities law, secured party (i) may offer and sell securities privately to purchasers who will agree to take them for investment purposes and not with a view to distribution and who will agree to imposition of restrictive legends on the certificates representing the security, or (ii) may sell such securities in an intrastate offering under Section 3(a)(11) of the Securities Act of 1933, and no sale so made in good faith by secured party shall be deemed to be not "commercially reasonable" because so made.

H. General

1. Parties Bound. Secured party's rights hereunder shall inure to the benefit of its successors and assigns, and in the event of any assignment or transfer of any of the obligation or the collateral, secured party thereafter shall be fully discharged from any responsibility with respect to the collateral so assigned or transferred, but secured party shall retain all rights and powers hereby given with respect to any of the obligation or collateral not so assigned or transferred. All representations, warranties and agreements of debtor if more than one are joint and several, and all shall be binding upon the personal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns of debtor.
2. Waiver. No delay of secured party in exercising any power or right shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any power or right preclude other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other power or right. No waiver by secured party of any right hereunder or of any default by debtor shall be binding upon secured party unless in writing, and no failure by secured party to exercise any power or right hereunder or waiver of any default by debtor shall operate as a waiver of any other or further exercise of such right or power or of any further default.
3. Agreement Continuing. This agreement shall constitute a continuing agreement, applying to all future as well as existing transactions, whether or not of the character contemplated at the date of this agreement, and if all transactions between secured party and debtor shall be closed at any time, shall be equally applicable to any new transactions thereafter. Provisions of this agreement, unless by their terms exclusive, shall be in addition to other agreements between the parties.
4. Definitions. Unless the context indicates otherwise, definitions in the UCC apply to words and phrases in this agreement; if UCC definitions conflict, Chapter 9 definitions apply.
5. Notice. Notice shall be deemed reasonable if mailed postage prepaid at least 5 days before the related action (or if the UCC elsewhere specifies a longer period, such longer period) to the address of debtor given above.
6. Interest. No agreement relating to the obligation shall be construed to be a contract for or to authorize charging or receiving, or require the payment or permit the collection of, interest at a rate or in an amount above that authorized by law. Interest payable under any agreement above that authorized by law shall be reduced automatically to the highest amount permitted by law.
